

Historical Studies in Education / Revue d'histoire de l'éducation
APPENDIX / APPENDICE

“Classified List of Farm Forum Topics, 1941–58” [with date of broadcast],
National Farm Radio Forum Fonds, MG28I68 Vol. 45 A5; Library and Archives Canada

ACCIDENTS, FIRES, DISASTERS

1. Stop, Look, Listen. January 18, 1954
2. Safety on the Farm. March 8, 1954
3. Safety on the Highway. March 21, 1955
4. Fire on the Farm. November 7, 1955
5. Planning Against Disaster. December 12, 1955

AGRICULTURAL FAIRS

1. Agricultural Fairs. January 10, 1955

AGRICULTURE IN CANADA

1. Farming on the Air Lanes. November 10, 1941
2. In the Maritimes. December 15, 1941
3. In Quebec. December 2, 1941
4. In Ontario. December 29, 1941
5. In British Columbia. January 5, 1942
6. In the Prairies. January 12, 1942
7. Whither Agriculture? March 9, 1942
8. Canada's Wartime Farm Program. November 9, 1941
9. The Farmer Views Our Wartime Program. November 23, 1942
10. How Important Is Agriculture In Canada? October 29, 1945
11. Farm Policy in Relation to Production. February 15, 1954
12. The Family Farm. January 30, 1956
13. What Is Parity Income for Agriculture? January 7, 1957
14. How Can Parity Income for Agriculture Be Achieved? January 14, 1957
15. Is Parity Income for Agriculture Enough? January 21, 1957
16. The Dominion Provincial Conference December 10, 1956
17. The Gordon Commission. What Does It Mean? February 4, 1957
18. What's Ahead? March 4, 1957
19. National Farm Policy. November 4, 1957
20. In the News (Federal Action For Agriculture). December 2, 1957

COMMUNICATION

1. I See by the Paper. November 29, 1948
2. I Hear on the Radio. December 6, 1948
3. Let's Go to the Movies. December 13, 1948

COMMUNITY LIFE AND ACTION

1. Let's Get Together and Do Something. April 8, 1941
2. How Can the Farmer Take Part? January 11, 1943
3. Importance of Planning the Rural Community. January 31, 1944
4. Church and the Rural Community. February 7, 1944
5. Other Agencies in the Rural Community. February 14, 1944
6. Community Projects. March 13, 1944
7. What's Happening to the People? November 27, 1944
8. Rural Communities Can Be Attractive. December 11, 1944
9. How Important Is Rural Community Organization? January 7, 1946
10. Organizing for Community Action. December 15, 1947
11. As Others See Us. December 5, 1949
12. Organization in a Community. March 20, 1950
13. Opportunities for Cultural Activities. November 26, 1951
14. The Hub of the Farm Community. December 8, 1952
15. Is Local Government Effective? December 14, 1955
16. A Man and His Neighbour. March 18, 1957 (Vol. 14, No 12)
17. The Rural Community. December 16, 1957

CO-OPERATIVES AND CREDIT UNIONS

1. From Producer to Consumer: How? March 18, 1941
2. Buying Together. February 2, 1942
3. Selling Together. March 2, 1942
4. Credit Unions. January 25, 1943
5. Credit Unions. January 17, 1944
6. Is Co-Operative Marketing Efficient? February 5, 1945
7. Marketing by Co-Op. January 5, 1948
8. Can We Farm Co-Operatively? March 13, 1950
9. Are Co-Ops Efficient? October 29, 1951
10. Are Co-Ops Democratic? November 5, 1951
11. Are Co-Ops Socialistic? November 12, 1951
12. What's Next in Co-Ops? February 25, 1957 (Fourth Night)

DAIRY INDUSTRY

1. Challenge of Dairy Substitutes. Nov 16, 1953
2. Who Benefits from Price Supports? January 9, 1956
3. School Milk. October 29, 1956

EDUCATION

1. Learning Isn't a Luxury. April 1, 1941
2. Education for Rural Life. March 16, 1942
3. Education for Farm Living. February 1, 1943
4. Fitting Young People For Rural Living. January 8, 1945
5. Making Rural Schools Effective. January 15, 1945
6. The Teacher in the Community. December 8, 1947
7. Education Divided by Ten. November 7, 1949
8. Can the Curriculum Be Improved for Rural Schools? March 5, 1951
9. What Kind of Training for Rural Teachers? March 12, 1951
10. Opportunities for Cultural Activities. November 26, 1951
11. Educational Outlooks for Adults. December 3, 1951

12. Folk Schools for Farm People. December 10, 1951
13. Is Equality in Education Possible? March 2, 1953
14. The School Tax Rate. March 1, 1954
15. Education for Farming. March 7, 1955
16. Teacher or Sitter? October 31, 1955
17. Education: Who Should Pay? February 17, 1958

EXTENSION SERVICES

1. We All Have Something To Learn. January 22, 1945
2. Do Scientific Advances Reach The Farmer? December 2, 1946
3. Pipe Lines of Information. March 19, 1951
4. Opportunities for Cultural Activities. November 26, 1951
5. Educational Outlets for Adults. December 3 1951
6. Folk Schools for Farm People. December 10, 1951
7. The Ag Rep and the Farmer. November 2, 1953
8. Citizens of Tomorrow. December 7, 1953
9. Agricultural Fairs. January 10, 1955
10. What About Farm Management? November 5, 1956 (Vol. 14, No 3)

FARM CREDIT AND FINANCE

1. Can We Pay Off Our Mortgages? February 18, 1941
2. The Farmer Must Live. November 24, 1941
3. Who Will Own the Land? February 16, 1942
4. Debt Menaces the Family Farm. February 22, 1943
5. Who Owns Our Farms? January 3, 1944
6. Adequate Farm Credit Can Be Supplied. January 10, 1944
7. Can Future Farmers Make A Living? December 4, 1944
8. Is Farm Income Used Efficiently? February 2, 1948
9. Let's Go Farming. November 8, 1948
10. Your Father's Farm. November 15, 1948
11. Is There Enough Farm Credit? January 14, 1952
12. How to Use Farm Credit. February 9, 1953
13. Getting Started. December 13, 1954
14. Farm Credit. November 11, 1957

FARM FAMILY

1. Youth On The Farm. November 3, 1947
2. The Farmer Takes a Wife. November 10, 1947
3. Boy Meets Girl. November 1, 1948
4. Farm Women in Public Life. November 10, 1952
5. Partners All. November 9, 1953
6. Citizens of Tomorrow. December 7, 1953
7. Bringing Up the Farm Family. January 17, 1955
8. The Low Income Farmer. March 3, 1958

FARM FORUM

1. The United Nations Looks At Farm Forum. March 16, 1953
2. Farm Forum in the Community. November 8, 1954

FARM HOME

1. Taking Stock of the Farm Home. February 8, 1943
2. Are Farm Living Standards High? October 28 1946
3. What About Farm Home Improvements? November 11, 1946
4. Is Farm Income Used Efficiently? February 2, 1948
5. As Others See Us December 5, 1949
6. Is There a Farm Housing Problem? December 12, 1949
7. More Attractive Homesteads March 9, 1953

FARM LABOR

1. Men and Machines. December 1, 1941
2. Neighbors Must Work Together. November 16 1942
3. Manpower and Farm Labour. November 30, 1942
4. Would Social Security Solve the Farm Labor Problem? March 10, 1947
5. Security for Farm Labor. December 11, 1950
6. Do We Need More Immigrants? March 3, 1952
7. The 40-Hour Week In Agriculture. March 14, 1955
8. Workmen's Compensation for Agriculture. March 12, 1956

FARM MACHINERY

1. Hand Sickle Or Harvest Combine? March 4, 1941
2. Men And Machines. December 1, 1941
3. What The Machine Has Done to Us. March 1, 1948
4. Are We Over-Mechanized? November 17, 1952
5. A New Look In Farm Machinery. November 18, 1957

FARM MANAGEMENT

1. Cutting Costs. March 11, 1941
2. Is The Farmer Efficient? January 19, 1942
3. The Family Farm As A Production Unit. February 15, 1943
4. Can We Do Without The Small Farm? November 12, 1945
5. Is Farm Income Used Efficiently? February 2, 1948
6. Are Farmers Businessmen? February 16, 1948
7. Your Father's Farm (Father-Son Agreements) November 15, 1948
8. Are We Good Farmers? November 28, 1949
9. Can We Farm Cooperatively? March 13, 1950
10. Can We Farm On Shorter Hours? October 30, 1950
11. Why Keep Farm Accounts? November 28, 1955
12. Father Son Partnership. February 6, 1956
13. What About Farm Management? November 5, 1956 (Vol. 14 No 3)
14. What Price Efficiency? December 3, 1956 (Vol. 14, No 5)
15. Let's Make It Legal. February 3, 1958

FARM ORGANIZATION

1. How Can The Farmer Take Part? January 11, 1943
2. Are National Farm Organizations Effective? January 14, 1946
3. Do We Need an International Farm Organization? January 21, 1946
4. What Should the World Federation Do? January 13, 1947
5. A Farm Organization for Everyone. November 17, 1947
6. Wanted—A Chance for Experience. October 31 1949

7. What Has IFAP Accomplished? February 19, 1951
8. What's Wrong with Our Farm Organizations? January 21, 1952
9. Where Are the New Farm Leaders? January 12, 1953
10. What's the Ideal Farm Organization? January 4, 1954
11. The Role of the Delegate. December 17, 1956
12. In The News (Canadian Federation Of Agriculture). February 10, 1958
13. Ladies And Gentlemen. March 10, 1958

FARMING (GENERAL)

1. The Good Old Days. January 21, 1941
2. Are There Too Many Farmers? January 28, 1941
3. Why Do People Leave the Land? October 30, 1944
4. What's Happening to the People? November 27, 1944
5. Who Will Farm in the Future? March 17, 1947
6. Farming As a Career. November 3, 1952

FOOD AND NUTRITION

1. Food for the People. November 17, 1941
2. Poor Soil Produces Poor Food. November 26, 1945
3. Are Canadians Well Fed? February 6, 1950
4. Is There Enough Land? February 13, 1950
5. Do We Need a World Food Bank? February 12, 1951
6. Should We Increase Production? January 7, 1952
7. Are Hunger And Poverty the Real Cause Of War? March 17, 1952

HEALTH, HEALTH SERVICES, HEALTH INSURANCE

1. You Can't Afford to Be Sick. February 25, 1941
2. We Can't Afford to Be Sick. February 9, 1942
3. A National Health Plan. January 18, 1943
4. How Stands Health. December 6, 1943
5. Government Health Plan. December 13, 1943
6. Canadian Federation of Agriculture Health Plan. December 20, 1943
7. Are Farm People Healthy? December 3, 1945
8. What About Health Insurance? December 10, 1945
9. What's New in Health? December 1, 1947
10. What's Happened To The Country Doctor? November 27, 1950
11. A National Health Insurance Plan. December 6, 1954
12. Paying for Our Health. February 27, 1956

IMMIGRATION

1. Do We Want More Immigrants? March 15, 1948
2. Do We Need More Immigrants? March 3, 1952
3. New Canadians. January 2, 1956

INSURANCE (CROP, FIRE, GENERAL)

1. Agriculture is a Risky Business. January 6, 1947
2. A Cushion For Disaster. January 3, 1949
3. A Matter Of Policy. January 10, 1949
4. Farm Insurance. November 22, 1954

INTERNATIONAL

1. Farmers in a People's War. November 2, 1942
2. Feeding the World in an Organized Way. March 29, 1943
3. United Nations Food Conference. February 28, 1944
4. Planning 1944 Food Production. March 6, 1944
5. We All Live in the Same World. March 19, 1945
6. Do We Need an International Farm Organization? January 21, 1946
7. Can the World Be Fed? March 18, 1946
8. What Should the World Federation (IFAP) Do? January 13, 1947
9. The World Is Our Market. January 12, 1948
10. Should Tariff Barriers Be Abolished? January 23, 1950
11. Is There Enough Land? February 13, 1950
12. Do We Need A World Food Bank? February 12, 1951
13. What Has IFAP Accomplished? February 19, 1951
14. Should We Increase Production? January 7, 1952
15. Customers Abroad March 10, 1952
16. Are Hunger And Poverty The Real Causes Of War? March 17, 1952
17. Building For Peace. December 15, 1952
18. Embarrassing Surpluses. January 19, 1953
19. Struggle for Men's Minds. November 30, 1953
20. Farm Policy in Relation to Production. February 15, 1954
21. Trade Or Aid Or What? December 20, 1954
22. Farm Marketing Abroad. February 14, 1955
23. Trade And Tariffs. March 5, 1956
24. The Soil Bank Idea. November 26, 1956
25. What Can We Learn From Abroad? February 18, 1957 (Vol. 14, No 10)
26. Canada's Role In World Affairs. March 17, 1948

MARKETING AND GRADING

1. From Producer to Producer—How? March 18, 1941
2. There Ought to Be a Law. March 25, 1941
3. Home and Export. December 8, 1941
4. Selling Together. March 2, 1942
5. Home Market Problems. March 6, 1943
6. Is Co-Operative Marketing Efficient? February 5, 1945
7. Are Commodity Exchanges Necessary? February 12, 1945
8. Should Producers Control Marketing? February 19, 1945
9. The Costly Trip from Producer to Consumer. February 11, 1946
10. Will The Consumer Pay for Quality? February 18, 1946
11. What About Export Markets? March 4, 1946
12. Who Will Export Our Farm Products? March 11, 1946
13. Commodity Agreements and Cartels. January 20, 1947
14. Marketing By Co-Op. January 5, 1947
15. The World Is Our Market. June 12, 1948
16. Do We Need a National Marketing Act? January 19, 1948
17. This Little Pig Went to Market. January 31, 1949
18. The Law of Supply and Demand. Jan. 9, 1950
19. Wanted—New Markets. January 8, 1951
20. Marketing Quality Products. January 1, 1951
21. What Can Marketing Boards Accomplish. January 22, 1951
22. Are Commodity Groups Doing the Job? February 11, 1952

23. Customers Abroad. March 17, 1952
24. The Cost of Marketing January 5, 1953
25. Embarrassing Surpluses. January 19, 1953
26. What Grade, Madam? February 8, 1954
27. Producer Marketing. January 24, 1955
28. Farm Marketing Abroad. February 14, 1955
29. Government or Producer Marketing Boards? February 13, 1956
30. Should Farmers Invest in Marketing? November 5, 1956 (Vol. 14, No 2)
31. Production Restrictions. January 6, 1958
32. Price and Income Supports. January 13, 1958
33. Producer Marketing. January 20, 1958

MERCHANDISING

1. Food Sales in Clothing. February 7, 1949
2. Marketing Quality Products. January 15, 1951

NATURAL RESOURCES

1. From Under The Earth.

PRICE AND PRICE SPREADS

1. Can We Get Cost of Production? January 26, 1942
2. Prices and Production. March 1, 1943
3. Prices and Planning. November 15, 1943
4. Price Control. November 22, 1943
5. Will Price Stabilization Help? March 12, 1945
6. The Costly Trip from Producer to Consumer. March 11, 1946
7. What Makes Prices? February 3, 1947
8. Ware Farm Prices Comparable to Industrial Prices? February 10, 1947
9. The Future Farm Price Program. February 17, 1947
10. What Price Shall We Ask? February 9, 1948
11. The Law of Supply and Demand. January 9, 1950
12. Parity and Floor Prices. January 16, 1950
13. Should Agricultural Production Be Controlled? February 5, 1951
14. What Sets Farm Prices. February 4, 1952
15. Why Price Supports. December 1, 1952
16. The Cost of Marketing. January 5, 1953
17. The Arm Price Trend. January 11, 1954
18. What Is the Farmer's Share of the Consumer's Dollar? November 15, 1954
19. Does She Put the Price Tag On? February 11, 1957 (Vol. 14 No 9)
20. Price and Income Supports. January 13, 1958

PRODUCTION

1. Should Farmers Grow More? February 4, 1941
2. Whither Agriculture? March 9, 1942

FOOD PRODUCTION TRENDS

1. In British Columbia. December 7, 1942
2. In The Prairies. December 14, 1942
3. In Ontario. December 21, 1942

4. In Quebec. December 28, 1942
5. In the Maritimes. January 4, 1943
6. Planning 1944 Food Production. March 6, 1944
7. Producing for Consumer Needs. March 5, 1945
8. How Much Food Should We Produce? November 5, 1945
9. Should Agricultural Production Be Controlled? February 5, 1951
10. Should We Increase Production? January 7, 1952
11. Production Restrictions. January 6, 1958

PUBLIC RELATIONS

1. The Farmer and the Public. February 2, 1953
2. Telling the Farmers Story. December 14, 1953
3. A Public Relations Program for Canadian Agriculture. February 7, 1955
4. The Farmer and the Government. January 16, 1956

RECONSTRUCTION

1. When the Boys Come Home. March 23, 1942
2. Farmers and Reconstruction. March 22, 1943
3. Why Plan? November 8, 1943
4. Can Future Farmers Make A Living? December 4, 1944

RECREATION

1. All Work... November 14, 1949
2. Opportunities for Cultural Activities. November 25, 1951
3. The Hub of the Farm Community. December 8, 1952

RURAL URBAN RELATIONS

1. Can We Maintain Our Present Consumption of Farm Products? February 4, 1946
2. Have Farmers A Stake In High Wages? March 3, 1947
3. Labor And The Farmer—Friend Or Foe? March 6, 1950
4. The Farmer And The Public. February 2, 1952
5. Telling The Farmers Story December 14, 1953
6. The Farmer And The Urban Worker. February 21, 1955
7. And Never The Twain Shall Meet? March 11, 1957 (Vol. 14, No. 11)

SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH, CHEMURGY

1. Is Research Meeting Farm Needs? November 25, 1946
2. Do Scientific Advances Reach the Farmer? December 2, 1946
3. What About Chemurgy? December 9, 1946

SOCIAL SECURITY

1. Would Social Security Solve the Farm Labour Problem? March 10, 1947
2. In Time of Need. January 17, 1949
3. A Pension for Everyone. December 4, 1950
4. Security for Farm Labor. December 11, 1950
5. Retirement Plan for Farmers. December 5, 1955
6. Workmen's Compensation for Agriculture. March 12, 1956

SOIL AND FOREST CONSERVATION

1. Will The Soil Last? February 23, 1942
2. Conservation and Land Use. March 15, 1943
3. Is Our Soil Worn Out? November 6, 1944
4. How Can We Make Our Land More Productive? November 13, 1944
5. Poor Soil Produces Poor Food. November 26, 1945
6. Do We Farm the Soil or Mine It? March 8, 1948
7. Conservation Is Everyone's Business. February 20 1950
8. Who Should Pay for Soil Conservation? November 6, 1950
9. Forests—Slash or Save? November 13, 1950

TAXATION

1. What About Farm Taxes? November 4, 1946
2. Render Unto Caesar. February 28, 1949
3. According to Worth. March 7, 1949
4. Many Happy Returns (Income Tax). March 14, 1949
5. The School Tax Rate. March 1, 1954

TRANSPORTATION

1. Food Takes a Ride. February 14, 1949
2. The Effect of High Transportation Costs. February 18, 1952
3. What Will the St. Lawrence Seaway Mean To Us? February 16, 1953

TARIFFS AND TRADE

1. The World Is Our Market. January 12, 1948
2. Should Tariff Barriers Be Abolished? January 23, 1950
3. Customers Abroad. March 10, 1952
4. Barriers to Trade. February 1, 1954
5. Farm Marketing Abroad. February 14, 1955
6. Trade and Tariffs. March 5, 1956
7. Import Controls: Are They Necessary? December 9, 1957